

Bulgaria authorities detain 7 foreign national attempting to enter country illegally

3 May 2015 | 15:47 | FOCUS News Agency

Bulgaria authorities detain 7 foreign national attempting to enter country illegally
Source: Focus Information Agency Sofia. 5 Afghani nationals attempted to cross the country illegally hidden in a freight train, while 2 Syrians were found by border police officers in a secret compartment in a microbus, the press centre of Bulgaria's Border Police Chief Directorate announced.

A microbus with a German vehicle registration plate arrived on Sunday morning at about 4:00 a.m. at the Kapitan Andreevo border checkpoint. The driver was a German citizen aged 51. The border police officers found a special secret compartment under the floor of the vehicle. 2 men without identity papers were found in it. According to their information, they are Syrian citizens. The driver and the illegal migrants were detained.

A heavy freight train arrived from Turkey at the Kapitan Andreevo border checkpoint at about 6:00 a.m. on Sunday. The border police officer on duty found in 2 of the containers on the freight cars 5 men without identity papers. According to their information, they are Afghan citizens. They have been detained.

Work on both cases continues.

(FOCUS FEN, 2015)